

11-15-1960

a concert of

TOP BRASS

featuring

PORTLAND SYMPHONY
BRASS AND PERCUSSION SECTIONS

conducted by

JOHN TRUDEAU

november 15, 1960, 8:30 p.m.

portland state college auditorium

Dear John: Do you remember this concert? I guess we were all young and foolish way back then. It makes me tired just to think of playing this program and as you will note, I didn't.

PROGRAM

- Aaron Copland . . . . . Fanfare for the Common Man
- * Henry Purcell . . . . . Symphony (fr. The Fairy Queen, Act 4)
1. Allegro marziale
2. Largo
3. Allegro - Adagio - Allegro
- * Hector Villa-Lobos . . . . . Choros #4 (for 3 Horns and Trombone)
- * Giovanni Gabrieli . . . . . Canzon Primi Toni
(Sacrae Symphoniae - Venice, 1957)

INTERMISSION

- * Gunther Schuller . . . . . Symphony for Brass and Percussion
1. Andante
2. Vivace
3. Lento Desolato
4. Introduction (Quasi Cadenza) -
Allegro
- Alan Shulman . . . . . Top Brass (Six Minutes for Twelve)
1. Allegro
2. Moderato
3. Allegro molto

* First performance in Portland

Betty joins me in wishing you well and may you have many years of relaxation and enjoyment. Sincerely, John Hudson

Members of the Ensemble

TRUMPETS

- J. Smith
C. Bogios
C. Lauer
D. Jimmerson
L. Reinoehl
L. Kaizer

HORNS

- R. White
G. Garrett
C. Dietz
R. Adkins

TROMBONES

- G. Reinmiller
D. Goodwin
T. Corlett

BARITONE

- J. Dalby

TYMPANI

- A. Duffy

TUBAS

- J. Richards
R. Pettingill

PERCUSSION

- F. Sommers

This concert has been made possible by a grant from the Music Performance Trust Fund of the Recording Industry through the cooperation of Local 99, American Federation of Musicians.